About Us

Kitsilano Neighbourhood House has been the hub of Vancouver West since 1894. Originally opened as Alexandra Orphanage and Non-Sectarian Home Society, Kits House has been serving the needs of the Vancouver West's diverse population, by offering programs and services for low income residents, single parents, children, youth, isolated seniors, new Canadians, and long-time residents.

Why become a Kits House Family member

To better serve the community, exciting redevelopment plans are under way. Our new LEED Gold standard facility will include 15-affordable senior housing units, a 25-space day care centre, a sustainable roof-top community garden and expanded programming. We are excited about the future, but can't do this alone. Join the Kits House Family, and help Kitsilano Neighbourhood House to continue to provide our low-cost often free programs.

Your support will make a difference to:

Children

By ensuring they can have access to child care.

Seniors

By ensuring they have a network of support through Senior Links, Osteofit, and many other programs.

New Immigrant Families

Who will benefit from Welcoming Neighbours and other programs.
